INFLUENCE OF CHINESE
That was the message of Miaoziwang, a senior Chinese politician, at the annual gathering yesterday to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China. He said that the Chinese government has always been committed to the development of friendly relations with all countries, and that the Chinese government will continue to play an active role in the international community.

The first article in this issue of Journal of Management Inquiry is a commentary on the first general issue of the journal, which was published in the fall of 1996. The author, Dr. John W. B. Whitely, is a senior lecturer in the Department of Management at the University of Cambridge, UK. He is also a senior research fellow at the Centre for Business and Society, which is a part of the same university. The author's research interests are in the area of business and society, and he has published several articles on this topic. The author's commentary is a critical analysis of the first general issue of the journal, and he discusses the strengths and weaknesses of the articles. He also discusses the overall quality of the journal and the importance of the field of business and society.

4. How do you think your organization should be structured to best support the needs of its customers?

It is important to note that the results of this study are based on a cross-sectional design. Therefore, the causal relationship between the variables cannot be definitively established. Future research should consider longitudinal studies to explore the temporal dynamics of these relationships.

Pinoy CSI relies on intuition

CSI investigators such as (left) Jay Alapag (right) of the Philippine National Police (PNP) and (center) of the PNP's forensic science unit are seen working on a case in a crime scene.

Q-10

Q: I recently watched a CSI episode and was amazed at the forensic science unit's ability to solve crimes.

A: The forensic science unit is a branch of the PNP that is responsible for the investigation and identification of crime scenes.

The unit is composed of several divisions, including the forensic science division, the forensic medicine division, and the forensic anthropology division.

The unit is headed by the PNP's forensic science director, who is responsible for the overall management and coordination of the unit's activities.

Iraqis vote on landmark constitution

Amman—Iraqis are voting on a landmark referendum on Sunday, with up to 15 million eligible voters choosing an interim national top post, while the constitution that will be later signed will shape the new country.

Most voters already taking a break in the north, from a hot and sunny day, are expected to be in good luck. The referendum is a landmark in the history of the country, which has been under a UN-imposed arms embargo since 1990. The vote is the first since the 1958 revolution and the 1968 Baathist revolution.

Some 15 million voters are expected to take part in the referendum, which will be held in 150,000 polling stations across the country.

US disasters bill questioned

The researchers found a positive correlation between the number of hours spent on the Internet and the number of hours spent on other activities, such as reading, watching TV, and playing video games. They also found that the more time spent on the Internet, the more time spent on other activities.

But America's government remains under the government's control, as demonstrated by its actions, including a long-standing ban on gay teachers and other public officials in the workplace, and its refusal to allow gay couples to marry.

From sugar farms to theme park

By Phil Torres, Bureau

Old sugar farms in the Philippines are being transformed into theme parks, a trend that is expected to continue in the coming years. The Philippine Sugar Corporation (PhilSugar) is one of the leading players in this market, with its flagship project, the Philippine Sugar Corporation Theme Park, located in the province of Negros Occidental. The park is a 1,000-hectare site that was formerly a sugar plantation. It is now a theme park that offers a variety of rides, games, and other entertainment facilities. The park is also a popular destination for tourists, who come to enjoy the beautiful scenery and the rich history of the area.

JOLIBEE'S educational video compact discs teach children their alphabet, numbers, colors and shapes.

Let the bee help your kids with the ABC

By Virginia Reyes-Reyes

JOLIBEE'S FUN HOME LEARNING just-faced checks, has come up with a three-volume full-color, extended video compact disc (VCD) to help kids master their ABC and improve their counting skills.

The Jollibee educational video series was produced by a very professional team, complete with actual videos and real musical soundtracks, animation, original and licensed (in Filipino by Star Music) the Jollibee.

In its first educational VCD project, Jollibee started with the basics, the letters, numbers, shapes and colors. Each volume runs from 15-25 minutes and covers the following topics: First volume, "Understanding Colors," second, "What Shape is Every?" and third, "How?"

"We want to provide appropriate educational tools that would help parents and kids learn together," says Tony Reyes, Jollibee's vice president for marketing. "We want parents to use Jollibee as their partner in helping kids and we want kids to be happy learning."

Jollibee's Fun Home Learning is the video, with four popular members of the Jollibee Show of ABS-CBN, who were developed by Jollibee and Star Records.

The 25-year-old fast-food chain has always provided the education of Philippine children, coming up with various comprehensive programs for students in Metro Manila's public and private schools. Jollibee believes the future belongs to the young and it recognizes how important it is to nurture and encourage the child's early development.

Jollibee hopes the video will be effective learning tools that will motivate as well.

"Star Records approached us with a very good proposal about the educational video and we built on their concept," says Reyes. "We had all materials checked by the Department of Education (DepEd)."

The full version (three volumes in one) is available in all major music stores across the Philippines for only P99. Aside from the full version VCD is a coupon for a free Jollibee Crunchy Treat.

Reyes notes that the VCDs that were initially part of Jollibee Kids Week were sold quickly. "Star Records told us the full version VCDs are also coming out to music stores." In view of this, Reyes says Jollibee is already planning to produce additional volumes with various themes.

The VCDs are available at all Jollibee outlets and record stores.
